Tax Season Closer Than You Think

Hello Friends and Clients!

I would like to take a moment to pay tribute to our men and women whom tirelessly serve in our armed forces so we can enjoy the freedom we have today. Remembrance Day is a time when we reflect on the several thousands of lives that were lost far away from our great country over the decades. These uniformed citizens unselfishly gave up their time and much more to protect our borders and Canadian identity. Coming from a military family, I always take a moment to reflect on this and trust you will also.

On a separate note, this is a time of the year when the 2017 tax season is probably the last thing on our mind. After all, we're more concerned with the upcoming Christmas season whether it's stocking up in gifts, getting the house decorated and travels plans like myself. However, before you know it, it'll be time to file our 2016 tax return and it always bestows me how many still leave this task to the last minute despite all notices. One of the preparations steps several of my clients have taken over the years is to "early book" their 2017 appointment so that time spot is allocated to them. A record number of clients are using this option because it keeps them on top of things. There's generally no cost and it can be changed within reason. So what's stopping you from doing that now? Much better to be assured a time slot than to miss out! Regrettably like most other practitioners, in the business, I have to turn away a lot of last minuters simply because others were way ahead of them, so don't let that happen to you and grab your free spot today!

Always at your tax service,

Neel
